

Share the Love With One of These 12 Valentine's Day Specials and Events

February 3, 2015

This February 14, show your loved one how much you care with a special Valentine's Day that they won't soon forget. SanDiegoVille wants to make planning your romantic outing easy so we've listed specials from all around town - from beachside dining to an undead bar crawl, San Diego is the ideal destination for fun this Valentine's Day. Celebrate with one of these 12 San Diego specials and events!

What's more romantic than a leisurely stroll down the beach? How about the addition of a four-course, ocean front dinner at World Famous in Pacific Beach? For $45 per person, the Valentine's Day dinner starts with pomegranate mimosas and a shared lobster bisque. The next course is a passionfruit winter mixed green salad, followed by a grilled filet mignon and prosciutto wrapped shrimp entree. Dinner ends with a dark chocolate mousse heart with Madagascar vanilla creme brulee! Make your reservations by calling (858) 272-3100.

Nothing says Valentine's Day more than champagne and oysters, besides the obvious chocolate and flowers. Taking full advantage of one of the best ocean views in Oceanside, Hello Betty Fish House will be offering both champagne and oysters on their rooftop, overlooking the picturesque Pacific Ocean. For $40 guests can enjoy six oysters on the half shell and a bottle of champagne. We'll cheers to that. To learn more and make your reservations, call (760) 722-1008.

